Carrier (Prologix transport inc.) agrees to pay sub- contractor _____ a compensation rate per miler as per the following conditions:

1. A contract between a carrier and independent sub-contractor implies the following:

Carrier / Dispatcher will acquire and negotiate loads on his or her discretion.

- A. Once a carrier signs a load agreement between a broker / shipper or third party logistics company the sub-contracting driver is deemed responsible and is liable for following:

1. Overseeing safety and proper loading and un-loading of the commodities.
2. Securing the commodities as per industry specific standards.
3. Maintaining his or her logbooks in compliance with DOT / FMCSA standards.

General liabilities:

- A. All sub-contracting drivers are responsible for:

1. General maintenance of equipment such as trailers and semi-trucks.

Daily inspections of engine, fluids, air brake pressure, tires etc.

This is considered an essential duty and mandatory under the Class 1 license for hire act to ensure public safety in general. Failure to report any critical defects or movement violations to the carrier can and may result in fines to the sub-contracting driver for withholding information for personal benefit or neglecting to follow general specific company protocols to ensure public safety. The sub-contracting driver understands that as an independent entity he or she is liable for damages to company equipment that arise from neglect or lack of judgment on their part.

2. Sub-contractor must maintain and submit all relevant paperwork such as original BOL's manifests and logbooks to us the carrier within 30 days. Failure to acquire a signature from the consignee / shipper on a Bill of Lading or Proof of delivery document will result in non-payment to the sub-contractor. Forging a signature is a criminal act and will result in full cancellation of the contract terms.

I hereby understand my liabilities as a sub-contractor and agree to the terms of this general agreement.
